BRITON IS BIG A WELCOME GUEST AT HEAD OF

Visit of Lord Charles Beresford Made an Event.

SAYS HE WILL CALL AGAIN

Charmed to be in Hawali Once More-Entertained by Britishers and Americans - Party.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

The British colony was in the seventh heaven of delight all of yesterday and the memory of the day and of this morning to 9 o'clock will be fresh and green for many a year. The Americans were a close second in giving attention and doing honor to Lord Chas. Beresford. Conspicuous in the co-operate section were such men as President Dole, Attorney General Smith, Special Agent Sewall, Consul General Haywood, J. B. Atherton, E. D. Tenney. LORD CHARLES BERESFORD. (Photo by Davey on Board S. S. America Maru.)

The "fighting Beresfords" are one of the famous families of England. The head of the house is the Marquis of Waterford, but the present bearer of the title is a boy of twenty-one, and the men who do most to keep the name of Beresford before the world are his uncles, Lord Charles and Lord William, titled by courtesy. The latter is well known as a soldier and a sportsman, and to Americans as the husband of the former Duchess of Marlborough, nee Miss Price, of New York. The former is one of the most popular men in England, and recently made a somewhat sensational reappearance in public life by seeking an election to Parliament as a Conservative in a constituency that had been a Liberal stronghold, and by winning, after an exciting campaign, with just eleven votes to spare.

Lord Charles Beresford is a sallor by profession, and has seen plenty of active service both affect and ashore. The best remembered episode of his naval career was his command of the gumboat Condor at the bombardment of Alexandria, when he took his ship so close under the guns of the Egyptian forts that the rebel gunners could not depress their mustles low enough to thit him, and his daring elicited the signal of west tions, Condor!" from the admiralof the British fleet. The Salisbury government's gratification at his recent political success may not be entirely unmixed, for Lord Charles is no doolle follower of party. He is a strong advocate of an active foreign policy, and an unsparing critic of the weak points in the British naval and military system. He declared recently that with international relations in their present critical state, a man of . war should be building at every slip on the shores of England. Charles is in prominence just now as a commercial missionary to the Orient and as favoring a business (open door) union of England, America, Japan and Germany

Lord Charles is quite democratic in his manner. The great navy captain recalled his pranks as a boy in Honolulu and was overloyed to meet some of his old acquaintances. He had long chats with President Dole, C. B. Wilson, Bruce Cartwright and several others, Lord Charles is a man well along in years, but he is almost boyish in spirit. EXTEND ALOHA

The Advertiser suggests that ample mark be made of the visit of the Battleship Oregon. The "Bull Dog of the Navy," the Dragon of the Santlago fight, is worthy recognition by attention to her officers and men.

The big battleship Oregon-the pride of the American navy-is anchored in the offing just outside the harbor. Cap-

The Oregon will begin to take on coal sometime tomorrow She has over 400 tons aboard now Her capacity is 1600 tons.

Captain A. S. Barker, who is in command, is not a stranger to Honolulu. Greetings of aloha will be extended him by many firm friends which he made during his previous visits to this tached to Honolulu, and well might he be, for here it was that he wooed and courted Mrs. Barker. They were later married in San Francisco.

Captain Barker was a member of the Strategy board in Washington during the ealier period of the war. He was given command of the Newark in time to participate in the bombardment of Santiago on July 1 and 2 He is considered one of the most conservative and cool-headed officers in the navy. He will be advanced to be a Commodore in June

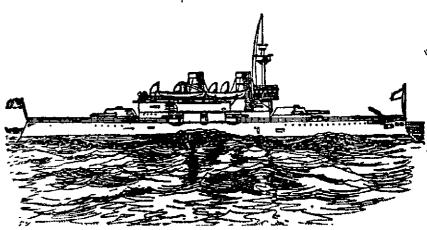

It is understood that Captain Barker will be relieved of the command of the Oregon here by Captain Folger, who is expected to arrive on the Rio de Janeiro on Friday. Captain Folger has just left the command of the New Orleans. He succeeded Admiral Sampson as Chief of the Bureau of Ordnance.

The personnel of the other officers aboard the Oregon include. Lieutenant Commander A P. Nazro, Executive officer, Lieut. W. H. Allen, mavigating officer, Lieut. A. A. Ackerman, watch officer; Lieut. E. W. Eberle, watch officer and flag lieutenant; Ensign L. A. Bostwick, watch officer; Ensign H. Macfarland, watch officer; Ensign R. Z Johnston, watch officer, Naval Cadets H. E. Yarnell, L. M. Overstreet, C. R. Miller, G. G. Magill, C. S. Kempff, J. N. Jensen and J. Falten; Chief Engineer Perry, Passed Assistant Engineer Moses, Assistant Engineers Lyons, Mallory, Burt and Eckhardt; Paymaster Reynold, Captain of Marines Dickins, Lieut of Marines Wynne, Dr. Stephenson, Dr. Haas and Dr. Dennis.

Lieuts. Allen and Eberle have been with the Oregon since the date of her commission, July 15, 1896, and have the honor of being aboard during her memorable fight in the Cuban campaign. Capt. Dickens, Lieut. Ackerman, Assistant Engineer Lyons and all the naval cadets, were in the thickest of the bombardments at Santiago, Fort Matanzas and Havana. The Oregon's complement numbers 500 officers and men. There are sixty marines aboard.

The Iris, a water distilling vessel and the collier Scindla, are trailing after the Oregon. They were scheduled to leave Galavegos two days after the departure of the Oregon and had orders to report at Hilo. Capt. Barker looks for the arrival of these colliers either 900000000000000000000 terday, especially during low tide The captain states that he must have nearly thirty feet of water Soundings will proceed to Honolulu with the Oregon, be taken today and the Oregon will be anchored in naval row.

The Oregon was sighted about noon resterday. It was 2 o'clock before she anchored. The vessel left Callao on January 11 and remained two days at Galavegos Islands taking on coal Her course from these islands was direct to Hilo, Hawaii, which port was reached on Saturday. A boat was sent ashore to land three passengers. The passengers landed were Dr Stephenson, Asfor life saving and about all the other sistant Engineer Mallory and Assistant Engineer Eckhardt. They were to visit the volcano and then come on to Honolulu either by one of the Island steamers or one of the colliers that is following the Oregon. After remaining off Hilo for two hours, the Oregon took up anchor and proceeded to Honolulu

Immediately after casting anchor bere, a boat was sent ashore to secure mail. Consul General Haywood and Postoffice clerk Kenake between them managed to pile up nine bags of mail which had socumulated in their offices In this mail were Captain Barker's orders. Captain Barker has his reasoms for mot making his orders public at this time. It is the belief of the officers aboard that the Oregon will remain in Honolulu for eight or ten days at least and that she will then proceed on to Manila. They do not believe that the instructions will send them to Samos, ulthough such bas been published in the Coast papers.

The same dispatch mentioned that owing to the foul condition of her bottom the Philadelphia would not be able to reach her destination before the end of February

The Oregon was launched in San Francisco on July 15 1896 She was built by the Union Iron Works of that When war against Spain was declared the Oregon received orders to proceed around the Hom and report at Ker West. She made a most remarkable trip under the command of Capt. Clark Not a single piece of her machinery was out of gear during all the many days of this long voyage. Upon her arrival at Key West, she

But for ber the Maria Teresa would have escaped. Her work in the destruction of the Spanish fleet made her the pride of the pary. The Oregon is considered the best battleship in the world today. She still wears her war paint.

for the promotion of commerce and peace. With both working in harmony to that end I think the peace of the world would be assured. There has been a great advance of late in the friendly relations of Great Britain and America, and so long as such mutual sentiment prevails there is really no need of a formal alliance.

There was talk once of a desire of Great Britain to acquire the Hawatian Islands. Since she has not

A BEAUTIFUL WORK.

Viggo Jacobsen, the pen artist, fairly excelled himself in engrossing the address. It is rarely beautiful and truly

At the top of the left hand page appears the Waterford Arms-Lord Beresford being the eldest uncle of the present Marquis of Waterford—a very beautiful beraldic device. Then follow three shields, emblazoned respectively in the colors of the red ensign, representing the British Navy; the cross of St. George upon a white field with the Jack, representing the Navy; and the third emblazoned green with the Harp in gold, for Ireland, the land of birth of Lord Charles. On the right O hand page a shield with the colors of the Union Jack, for England, heads the list; then follow in the next two shields the Stars and Stripes and the Hawaiian colors; and for a tailpiece to the whole the glorious design of the Royal Standard. surmounted by the crown of Britain and the blue ribbon of the Order of the Garter, the whole of which latter device is embellished with a symmetrical arrangement of the the Rose, Thistle and Shamrock. Some of the above described shields are cunningly made to appear as being suspended from a pair of golden tilting spears, such as were used in the early tournaments, and the bannerets fluttering from the head of these bear the motto of the Beresford "NIL NISI family, viz: "NIL NISI CRUCE" (No dependence but in the cross.) tion that Britons would next prefer to own the Islands than the United States. With regard to the native Hawaiians, I cannot say that I know very much about their position. It may be presumed, however, that they feel a degree of soreness over the change in the political conditions of their country. Nevertheless, looking back to my own country, not so very long ago, there was considerable soremess in Ireland over its union with Great Britain, Indeed, a good many Irishmen today think that the union is not entirely properthat it should be "Great Ireland and Britain" instead of Great Britain and Ireland." (Laughter.) The future of Hawaii, gentlemen, I am confident is assured.

You have referred to my mission as being in the interest of commerce and peace. I think we may hope ere long to see an alliance between Great Britain, the United States, Germany and Japan -not for selfish purposes, but for the realization of that commercial ideal which has been aptly condensed into the term, "the open It would be an alliance that would promote trade, which is the best means of preserving the peace of the world-that blessing that we all desire most devoutly.

IT COMES ABOUT IN NATURAL WAY.

Why New Two-Cent Stamps Are Red-Money is Made.

There was a mild sensation yesterday when the new two-cent postage stamps were placed on sale. It was noted at once that they were red in color-same as the fives-while the old twos, exhausted about three weeks ago, were brown. Conjecture was rife on the change of hue and all sorts of yarns were soon flying about. Postmaster General Oat was interviewed without delay by a representative of the Advertiser. The official said there was nothing surprising or unusual about or special about the advent of the new stamp. It was red instead of brown simply for the reason that regulations of the International Postal Union prescribed some months ago that after January 1, 1899, all two-cent stamps should be of the new color. The same regulation is for the five, now red here, to be blue, and the ones, now yellow, to be green.

Money has been made on the change of the twos and money is yet to be made. There will be more money than at present in prospect in the other varieties, unless the United States takes over the postoffice before the year ends.

The two-cent stamps became exhausted here early by reason of their po long. This was the only denomination they used. Mr. Oat says the new consignment of twos is of natural proportions and will last a long time unless there is abother big garrison established.

Visiting Merchants.

Coffin Bros., two rich merchants. from Washington State, have come to dealers.

Honolulu for a few weeks' visit during which time they will have an eye open for business opportunities. These men are well known in Washington. They have a large mercantile establishment in Seattle and branch stores in a number of the smaller towns of the state. They are well pleased with Honolulu.

Mr. Irwin Buys More.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.-A few days ago Banker William G. Irwin purchased from Irwin M. Scott for $100,000 almost two full fifty-vara lots on the east side of Laguna, extending shaft of a Hack inflicted a Patal Would from Washington to Jackson streets. In this purchase there lacked a lot 32:6x127:8 of the two full fifty-vara O lots. Yesterday Mr. Irwin purchased this lot from a Miss Spooner, to whom Irwin M. Scott sold it some years ago. The lot cost $20,000, so that the site residence on the site to cost between $80,000 and $100,000.

SENATE IS TO DO

Treaty Will be Ratified by House at Once.

May Be Rider Concerning Philippines-Money for Government Control Work-Mr. Davies

Washington correspondent sends the following: Ratification of the peace treaty on or before February 6. Probable adoption of a resolution declaring that the peace treaty does not bind the United States to permanent control of the Philippines. Appropriation of $20,000,000 to carry out the provisions of the treaty. Passage of some compromise measure for providing enough men to garrison the colonies. No extra session of Congress.

This is now the outlook as the result of the action of the Senate today in agreeing to take a vote on the peace treaty and pending amendments at 3 o'clock in the afternoon on February 6, if not earlier. It was the most important action of the present session. Uncertainty and doubt have been dissipated, and the Senate can set about the transaction of business.

Leading Senators who have made a careful canvass of the situation have no doubt as to the ratification of the treaty. Senator Davis says he has not attempted to poll the Senate, but he has no doubt considerable more than sixty Senators will vote for the treaty when action is finally taken.

Herrington had not asked for leave to go ashore on Friday, the first day of the Scandia's arrival in port, but secured permission from Lieut. Welsh of his company to remain ashore all day Saturday. Herrington rented a bu cycle and spent the morning taking in the sights of the city. When noontime came he started a final spin before going to his ship to secure lunch. When near the intersection of Smith and Pauahi street, say witnesses, he collided with a hack driven by a ma-NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The Herald's tive named Joe Kalana. The hack had just turned into Pauahi street from Smith. The end of one of the shafts struck Herrington in the abdomen causing a rupture. He was picked up and placed in a hack and taken aboard of the Scandia.

Dr. Van Tyle, surgeon of the Twentieth Infantry, took charge of the case. and did everything possible for the injured man. It was intended to move him to the Queen's hospital, but death came at 10 o'clock yesterday morning and ended Herrington's suffering.

The remains were carried ashore and taken to E. A. Williams' undertaking establishment. Interment will take place today.

A coroner's jury was empanelled about noon yesterday, consisting of H. M. Mist, Viggo Jacobsen, Wm. Savidge, Marcus L. Hare, W. H. Smith and J. L. Nicholl. The testimony of a couple of soldiers aboard the Scandia, who witneseed the accident, was taken. The inquest will be concluded on Tuesday

Herrington was a new recruit, havng loined at Fort Leavenworth, Kas. but a few weeks ago. Nothing is known about his private affairs. His officers considered him a good man.

The evidence so far is that Herrington was on the mauka (right) side of Smith street, moving Ewaward and that the hack was on the same side moving in the Walkiki direction. Kalana claims that he was driving carefully and was entitled to the right of way. Some of the soldiers claim Kalana tried to drive away without being iden-

HEART FAILURE IN WATER.

Another death occurred in the Honolulu harbor yesterday. W. Hansen, a carpenter aboard the Star of Russia, died in the water at the foot of the ladder attached to his ship.

The Star of Russia is anchored well out in the harbor. Hansen and two of his shipmates went in bathing about 10 o'clock. They had been in the water some time, swimming, diving and turning somersaults. Suddenly it was discovered that Hansen was missing. A brief investigation and his body was found at the bottom of the ship's ladder.

Hansen's body was brought ashore and will be buried this morning. A coroner's inquest was held and a verdict returned that "Hansen came to his death in the harbor of Honolulu on February 5 from heart disease while in swimming and that death was accelerated by the shock caused by immersion in the waters."

The jury consisted of the same gentlemen empanelled in the Herrington panions was to the effect that he has always complained of heart troubles since they knew him. Hansen's fear was that his end would come quickly.

A third casualty in the barbor has narrowly averted on Saturday morning early. A fireman aboard the Scandia fell overboard and would certainly have drowned had not assistance arrived in time. One of the regulars saw the man fall overboard and threw out a life line

CAVE IS FOUND

Prof. Alexander's Opinion-A Sacrifice Stone Near Walalua. Kalakaua's Notes.

Dr. Carmichael, the United States quarantine surgeon, who is stationed in Honolulu, called on Professor W. D. Alexander, at the Survey department yesterday, and made known the discovery of an ancient cave in the vicinity of Koko Head.

The newly discovered cave is in the Maunalua district on this Island, and is located near the coast and about half way between Koko Head and Ma kapun point. "Pictured Rocks" were found inside the cave, and at Professor Alexander's suggestion, Dr. Carmichael and his party will make an other visit to the cave to study the characters inscribed there for the purpose of ascertaining if they are similar to the pictured ledges of Kausi and elsewhere.

Dr. Carmichael has been scientifical ly inclined since his arrival in Honolulu and proposes to make the closest study of his discovery. Professor Alexander is positive that the existence of the cave in the Koko Head country has never been known to historians

A short time ago a party consisting of B. F. Dillingham, Governor A. S. Cleghorn, Major Curtis P. laukea and Colonel Whyte of Seattle, were riding over the plains, back some five or six miles from Watalua, when they came to a natural bridge, crossing two ravines. On beyond, one or two hundred yards, was found a large stone, and near by three large holes. A little further on were the indelible marks of an ancient city.

This is known to have been the stamping ground of Kokoa, the Cannibal chief. He was widely known throughout Oahu as Kalo Aikanaka. The stone, where he executed his victims and the holes in the earth, were the ovens in which their bodies were cremated.

The late king Kalakana in his "Legto say of the Cannibal chief and his eth Infantry, save four recruits for the settlement:

"It may be assumed that near the close of the seventeenth cenury, Kalo of Brigadier General Wheaton. Alkanaka, the chief of the cannibals at Wajaha. Oahu. They came from Kauai where they had been living for the previous ten years or so. They are said to have come to Kauai from one of the Southern Islands, which our tradition does not mention, in double canoes, and as they were in a starving condition, it was thought that they had been blown thither by adverse winds while journeying to some other Islands. They lived at first on land near the foot of the mountains back of Waimea, then in a secluded variey in the mountains of Haupu. Kalo Aikanaka was of chiefly proportions, and his muscular limbs were tattooed with rude representations of birds, sharks, and other fishes. His features were rather of the Papuan cast. His people were somewhat darker than the Kauaians, they were expert fishermen and swimmers."

The execution stone used by the Cannibal chief was exceedingly interesting to the members of Mr. Dillingham's party The descriptions were very similar to that of Gilbert Farqubar Mathison, who made a visit to the stone in the year 1822, and has this to say about it: "I had expected to find a monument of great magnitude, instead of which I saw nothing but a flat stone, resembling an English tomb-stone, about five feet broad by six or seven feet in length. The surface was very smooth and upon it I discovered many rude representations of men and animals, similar to those which have from time to time been met with and described among the Indians of America. Many were defaced, and in others I could trace no resemblance to any known objects, either animate or inanimate; the stone itself was very imperfect, pieces of it having been broken off on different sides, which I learnt from the guide had been done by neighboring inhabitants, in order to convert the materials into knives, mirrors, pots, and other domestic utensils, which were always fabricated from stones in former times, previous to the introduction of from by foreign trades."

The drawings at Honaupan, Kona Hawaii, and at Keoniloa beach, Koloa. Kanai, have been written about considerably. They are perhaps the most famous in the group.

Transport Scandia has Regiment of Regulars.

Made a Good Run-is to Await the Morgan City-A Fighting Command.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

The Twentieth United States Infantry regulars are city visitors. They came on the U.S. army transport Scandia early yesterday morning, arriving two days earlier than expected.

The Scandia received orders in San Francisco to sail for Honolulu and await the Morgan City, which would carry later orders. This cutter transport was scheduled to sail out of the Golden Gate a few hours after the Scandia left. If she has not been detained, the Morgan City may be expected to arrive in port today.

If the Scandia is accompanied by the Morgan City, that vessel will steam whead and arrive in Manila several days before the Morgan City.

The America Maru has on board as through passengers, two members of Aguinaldo's special commission to Washington. The other three members of the commission passed through on the Nippon Maru last month.

General E. Riego de Dios and Senor

M. Rivera are the commissioners now in the city. They started from Manila with the other members, but were detained in Yokohama on account of the sickness of the General. General Dios is an old soldier and has been Aguinaldo's companion throughout several revolutions. He is a thorough Filipino. has never been outside of his native country and speaks his native tongue only. Mr. Rivera is the secretary of the commission. He is 26 years of age and is an interesting convergational. He was educated in the English schools of Hongkong and has been interested in Agninaldo's secrets and intrigues from his boyhood days.

Mr. Rivera talked quite freely to the Advertiser last evening.

"Aguinaldo's second proclamation," said he, "which he issued to his people shortly after the departure of our commission from Manila, called for either death or independence. Our Congress, which is in session at Malolos, has passed a vote of confidence in Aguinaldo and authorized him to make war on the Americans whenever he may deem it advisable.

."General Otis gave out a proclamation to the people of the Philippine Islands early in January, and ditled himself as Military Governor. He also gave out impression that it was the intention of the United States to annex the Philippines. In responding to this proclamation, Aguinaldo protested to General Otis calling himself Military Governor of the Philippines. Our President solemnly proclaimed that he did not place himself under any obligation to acknowledge the sovereignty of America in our beloved soil, either in national flag, as a sacred emblem of ritt that the purpose of the United States in waging war against the Spanish General, Senor Jandenes, in which proclamation it was clearly lards was to give the Filipinos their stated that the land and naval forces EMILIO AGUINALDO

This document created much excitement throughout Manila and all the provinces."

> "Do you think that Aguinaldo appreciated the military resources of the United States?"

> "Yes, fully," quickly responded Mr. Rivera. "Aguinaldo knows that we are weak and that the United States is mighty, but that is not the issue. He is seeking the freedom and independence of his people. It is that and nothing else. Aguinaldo and all his followers will give up their lives before submitting to American rule. It is Independence or Death."

> Mr. Rivera stated that Aguinaldo has never been outside of the Philippines except recently when he visited Honkong and Shanghai.

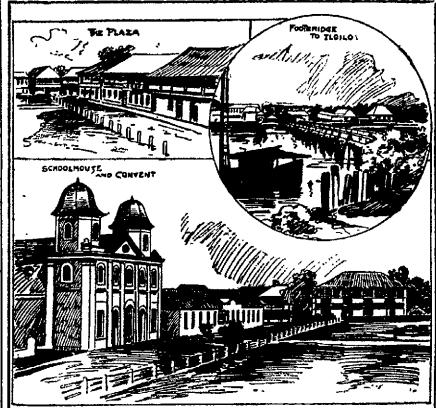

> The second and very sensational proclamation issued by General Aguinaldo, was posted throughout Mantla on January 8. Excitement soon rose to fever heat. The Spaniards packed their household goods and fled to the walled city, while the insurgents went immediately to the insurgent lines

> When the news reached the American headquarters and the purport of the manifesto was learned, orders were sent to the beadquarters of every regiment on the island to keep the men within quarters under arms, ready to emergency call. Guards all over the city were strengthened and every possible precaution was taken against an outbreak or disturbance

Many insurgents who have been working in the city left their positions and went flocking to the lines outside of the city. As a result many business houses are short of help, and some have even closed their places temporarily.

The American, published in Manila. in speaking of the situation says

Honolulu welcomed Friday a noted Englishman. It is nearly forty years since Lord Beresford manifested his exhuberant spirits in these Islands. He egain comes to us laden with much honor, a daring fighter on land and son, a man of experience, a statesman, m leader in the higher social life of England. To his sense and judgment the British resort in determining their relations with the Oriental nations.

Upon the ratification of the treaty of Paris, the Philippines will become American territory, and the inhabitents citizens of the United States. At once, there will be added to our population several millions of Mohammedan polygamists, who will flaunt in the face of Uncle Sam, the words of the great Prophet commanding plural marrisges. Moreover, they will politely but firmly inform Uncle Sam, in his character as Missionary of good government, that they do not propose to have their sacred institution impaired by any new fangled experiments; that if the Occidental choose to admit that in their boasted development one man can only manage one woman, it remains for the Orientals to show a much higher capacity for in 1863. They were captured, and these social organization, by the management of many women by one man.

What shall be the attitude of our Expansionists? Will they have the courage of their convictions and cause notices to be pasted upon the gate ippines in all dialects; "polygamy traordinary resources of men who were posts and fences throughout the Philstrictly forbidden on these premises,"-"on and after date licenses to marry only one woman issued,"-"no good government and polygamy can exist together?"

composing this poem, he says:

"The first three lines of each verse represent the sound of three large waves rolling in and breaking; the fourth line represents the water receding over the pebbly beach."

We, at least, our young people, should be experts in criticising the music of the "sad sea waves," and the "hoarse music" when the waves lose their tempers, and scold the land. The following are two of the verses, which are respectfully submitted to the students of Oahu College and the High School, and all other schools in which poetry is discussed:

WONDERFUL ESCAPE.

One of the most romantic incidents of the Civil War was the capture and escape of Gen. Juan T. Morgan and General Basil W. Duke and four others, who with a considerable force of Confederates raided the State of Ohio officers, with 168 other Confederates were placed in the Ohio State Penitentiary at Columbus. Shortly after that imprisonment, several of them contrived a plan of escape, which was successfully executed The plan was carefully made, and in its details showed the exentelligent and had one object in view. The story of it was graphically told in the Century several years ago. The scheme would permit of the escape of only six persons. The only tools that were used were two knives from the Penitentiary kitchen, formed out of two flat files. UNEVEN TAXATION.

One of the singular economic enormities of the times, is the unequal taxation of property. The unequal and unjust system of taxation prevailing here, although well known, excites no deep public interest, because such taxation usually fixes itself upon those who are not able to resent the amposition. On the whole, however, property owners are conscious that few persons really pay the amount of tax which an equal distribution of the burden requires, and therefore prefer to let the matter alone The Comptroller of the State of New York says, in his annual report that only 3 per cent of the personal property domiciled in the State is now subject to tax. A TROPICAL BATION.

Major Surgeon Louis L. Seaman of the 1st Reg. U. S. V. Eng. makes some valuable commentaries in the Century on the army food ration in the tropics. While he confines himself to the army ration, what he says has great and the class he represents, will simply value in estimating the food ration of the white men who live in the tropics. The wide spread, if not alarming inorease of the "nervous" brigade in these Islands ought to compel a thorough investigation of the proper hyglenic conditions for our daily life. The doctors could tell us what to do, lawyers, and the merchants, and the druggists cannot afford "to give away their business." So the laymen must work out their own salvation.

Dr. Seaman says the regiment on arriving at Porto Rico August 16th numbered 1144, and were in remarkably fine physical condition. Every effort was made to keep the men in the best condition. No criticism, after the regiment returned, could be made on any of the sanitary arrangements, suggestion had been followed. Medical supplies were in abundance. "Yet," says Dr. Seaman, "hundreds of cases of serious forms of gastro-intestinal catarrh and fevers rapidly developed. With few exceptions the entire force suffered from some form of intestinal catarrh within a week after arrival. colds resulting from sleeping on the wet ground, or eating fruit."

The army ration was mainly fatty bacon, salt beef, canned tomatoes. The men grew weak under this ration, and lost the power of fighting dis-

Whenever, however, the men were placed upon a rice and milk diet, they began to improve. The records of the hospitals show conclusively the value of the milk ration. If the troops had been fed upon this simple ration, largely made up of carbohydrates, as soon as they entered the tropics, there would have been, in Dr. Seaman's year, the manager of a company of opinion, no decrease in their physical condition.

Dr. Seaman makes no discussion of the proper ration for the tropics. Perhaps he does not feel at present competent to state what it should be. in the matter A cynical review of his opinion would suggest that an American army in the tropics should be attended by innumerable flocks of goats, which least 100,000 she goats as a basis of

There are excellent reasons for suggesting the organization of a society for "The Preservation of the Physical Condition of the White Man" in these Islands. In making this suggestion we know that some of our excellent doctors will in the night time, draw the skull and bones across the door of the Advertiser, because our suggestion tends to destroy a 'valuable industry." But, in the long run, the doctors will be the strongest advocates for using or should be done the battleship Ore a "rational ration" in our tropics. No more valuable or interesting subject could be discussed by them than this question of diet. For here the of Commerce, the Big 100, the Ladies, Anglo-Saxon has come to stay, if the climate and the Asiatics permit, and the Anglo-Saxon finds here, as the enlisted men found that the tropics are a Paradise outwardls, but that the immutable hygienic laws of the Paradise must be known and followed, in order to prevent the dwindling of the white man who yentares to live within Decision in a Case Arising Under '94 Law.

Time of the Market Value of Sugar-Cargo From Brazil-A Test Suit of Interest.

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 20.-According to a decision recorded in the United States Court to-day by Judge William K. Townsend the American Sugar Refining Company has lost its two cases against the Appraisers of the port of New York. The question at issue involved the point whether the valuation of imported sugar should be on the basis of its market value at the port of shipment or the port of entry. While the act of 1894 was in force the American Sugar Refining Company made several large shipments of moist and green sugar from Brazil. The market value of this sugar when it left Brazil was 6s 9d per hundredweight, but its market value when it arrived at New York had advanced to 7s 9d per hundredweight. The Appraisers assessed it at 40 per cent. ad valorem according to its valuation in the New York market, and the American Sugar Refining Company appealed from the decision. The suit was a test case, and its decision by Judge Townsend against the American Sugar Refining Company disposes of a point that has been in dispute at American Custom Houses for many years.

In his decision Judge Townsend

save: "Owing to drainage, there are less pounds of sugar on arrival here than when the ship left Brazil, but the cargo is actually worth as much as when it started. It appears, therefore, that if the sugar has been kept for the same length of time in Brazil the same loss in weight by drainage and increase in value per pound would have taken place there and the value of the cargo as a whole would not have been affected thereby. It this be so, I do not think the importer should gain by the decrease in weight coupled with an increase in value per pound. Unless therefore, the Appraisers have acted in bad faith or have clearly committed a substantial error by their mode of accertaining the market value in Brazil of the sugar on its arrival here, their decision should be affirmed. I am unable to find any such mistake or error."

PROPERTY QUALIFICATION.

Some Argument Included in Report Made to House.

"The question of a property qualification of any kind for a voter or member of the Senate is an important one," say the majority report on the Hawailan bill, "and calculated to excite entagonism to the United States, but such a qualification has long prevailed in Hawaii, and, as far as can be ascertained, meets the approval of the people. The requirement has gradually grown less prohibitive, and that now proposed is the most liberal, and the commissioners, in their report, look for its final extinction, but the present time is not favorable to the expenment. It insures, as far as possible, a conservative body in the legislative body of Hawaii at an important period of its history. It permits a large number of native Hawaiians to vote for members of the upper house, and the objections to this provision are largely met by the removal of all property qualifications for membership of the lower house or for electors of members of that body. Thus a popular house is created, all classes are represented. and each house will be a check upon the other."

The report also speaks of the favorable features of abolishing race distinction in juries and the extension of the English language in Hawaii.

As to the extension of the custom and revenue laws of the United States to Hawaii, the report says that a special bill, now pending, covers the case, and if this is not passed, then the general bill will be amended to cover the case

Will Have Greatly Increased Coffee Output.

Puna Error-Banner Hamakua-Cane Enterprise in District.

R. H. Rycroft, a Puna coffee grower and real estate man of Hilo, is in the city attending to some business matters. He will return to the big island on the Kinau this afternoon.

Mr Rycroft is sure that the present year's crop in Olaa will prove beyond any doubt that coffee is not an experiment in that district. "The output will more than treble that of last year," said Mr. Rycroft. "This is accounted for by a good many of the plantations attaining their maturity. The purchase of the Zimmerman property for $25,000 by some Chicago partles, has given an impetus to the industry. Some other Easterners are contemplating going into the district.

'Puna district is doing fairly well. There are no new estates, though, and we who are in, are resting on our oars. A general mistake has been made throughout Puna, and that is in cutting down our shade. Hamakua is the banner district on Hawaii for coffee cultivation. Aspirations Run in Another Channel-His Comment - Handling of Coal for the War.

There has been considerable discussion lately in political circles concerneral, for the office of Governor of Hawani. It was quite positively stated that Mr. Haywood's recent visit to Washington was in the interests of his reported boom. Mr. Haywood was interviewed at his home last evening. "It is stated to the Advertiser, Mr. Haywood," said the reporter, "that you are an aspirant for the governorship and that this was the object of your recent unexpected trip to Washing

"The statement is absurd," Mr. Haywood instantly replied. "I canno understand how such a rumor could get about when there is absolutely no foundation for it. Holding the position of Consul General here, makes it impossible for me to be in any way mixed up in the local politics of the Government to which the President has accredited me. "Ever since I left college, I have been connected in one way or another with the department of State and re is hardly likely that I should commit such a serious breach of regulations. The action of a President of the United States not many years ago in sending passports to an ambassador of a pewerful and friendly nation because it was thought that he had interested himself too much in the Presidential election in the United States, is still fresh in my mind. "You can say that I have never made an application for the office of Governor or for any other Federal position here and I am sure that none of my friends at home have ever asked that be appointed to any position in Hawaii under the new form of gavernment. They all know that my desires run in other directions."

"When do you expect that you wil be relieved of your duties here?" "I have no way of knowing other than what I see in the papers regarding Congressional Legislation. I fancy that as soon as Congress extends the customs and navigation laws to the islands my duties will cease and my recall will be received in due course of business. I look for this to be done during this ession of Congress, though it is timpossible to say positively. There will be no necessity of a consular office after the laws are passed."

"Who will take charge of the Amercan coal now in your possession?" "Some time ago I was relieved of Ruhlen, and it would not surprise me one week's later news therein. I have received no orders, as yet, to do so."

It is estimated that Consul Haywood nandled over 60,000 tons of coal for the United States since the time that war was declared against Spain.

On one occasion the Government had little or no coal. Several shiploads had started for Honolulu with full cargoes at 10 o'clock this morning. The Govof coal, but it was not certain when erament band will play her off. they would arrive. Some transports were to arrive in a day or so and there plement of officers, English and Jap was no coal to be bought. Consul anese, as the Nippon Maru has Haywood explained his predicament to John Ena, of the Inter Island Steamship Company. That gentleman realized fully how serious it would be to have the transport ships tied up here on account of lack of coal, and he gave the assurance that as long as there was one bit of coal in his possession, it would be cheerfully turned over to the United States in her hour of need.

The service performed by this patriotic citizen was reported to the State Department by Mr. Haywood.

Did Not Want to Go to Prison Oplum Case-Shows-Dry Weather-Snow on Haleakala.

MAUI, Feb. 4, 1899 .- Wailuku Chinese seem to have horror of the jail. Sunday, January 29th, a Mongolian named Alana was arrested in his house charged with having opium in posses- of dower therein. sion. Just after the arrest had been formally made, and while the policeman's back was turned for a moment, Alana stabbed himself in the abdomen with a knife inflicting such a severe wound that he has been in Malulani Hospital for a week under the care of Dr. Weddick. He, however, was able to appear in court this morning.

The "Kickapoo Show," which has been doing "good business" in Lahaina, is expected in Wailuku to-day or Monday.

The "cineograph man" who was "billed" to exhibit in Wailuku during the past week did not put in an appearance as advertised.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Allen and party (tourists) who visited Haleakala last week report that recent south winds ary 11, will be five days late in her have torn the iron-roofing completely off "Craigielea," the little stone house on the summit.

During the week, Mrs. Lewis, the wife of Rev. J. M. Lewis of Wailuku has been seriously ill. A baby daughter was born to the Lewis's Monday. Jan. 30th.

Maunaolu seminary has now fiftyfour pupils enrolled. It will be possible to accommodate but a few more girls until the new buildings are constructed back of Sunnyside parallel to Grove Ranch, Paia.

John Kanakamaikai, the well-known clerk in the office of Tax-Assessor W. T. Robinson of Wailuku, has been very sick with hemorrhage of lungs.

Jan. 30th, the three-masted schooner "Jenny Ward," Christiansen master, arrived in Kahului, 16 days from San Francisco with a general cargo for the Haiku, Paia and Alexander and Baldwin Companies.

The bark "Nuuanu" now loading sugar for New York will probably get away the middle of next week.

Weather: - Very dry indeed-kamasinas are prophesying a dry winter. South wind though not heavy. Snow on the summit of Haleakala the early part of the week, and thunder and lightning on its western slope the afternoon of the 1st.

An American Woman Who is Now Called "Lady"

In the Advertiser of Saturday appears an extract from the "surf" poetry of Mr. J. Hooker Hammersley. Miss Price, of Albany, afterward the Duchess of Mariborough, and now the wife of Lord William Beresford, the brother of Lord Charles, married for her first husband a Mr. Louis Hammersly, a cousin of Mr. J. Hooker. By a curious will he left, on his death, the income of an enormous estate to his wife. With power to dispose of the estate on her death. He provided, however, that should Mr. J. Hooker Hammersly have a son, the estate should go to that son on her death. For many years no son was born, but after the marriage of Mrs. Hammersly to the Duke of Marl borough, a son was born, is now living, and will probably receive the great estate. In a will made some years before his death Mr. Louis Hammersly provided that if his widow married again, she should forfeit the right to his death, and his change of mind enabled the handsome widow to restore the Blenheim palace, become a Duchess, and finally settled down with the nominal title of "Lady" Beresford only es her husband has no actual rank.

Struck in Eastern Waters by Japanese Gunboat.

Damage Will Cause Delay of at Least Five Days-Prompt Action-Repairs.

The City of Peking, due to reach Honolulu from Yokohama on Februarrival here. The delay is occasioned by damages sustained by the Peking in a collision with the Japanese gunboat Amagi on January 16.

The collision took place off Ichiesaki, in the province of Kii. At the time it was very dark and the two vessels could not distinguish one another. The Amagi struck the Peking amidships, destroying about 50 feet of rails and knocking overboard No. 3 lifeboat hanging on the port-side davit. It is said also that three plates were injured. The alarm was immediately given on the steamer and all necessary preparations were made for saving life. The life belts were distributed among the passengers.

The Peking manged, however, to enter Kobe the following morning and proceeded on her way to Hongkong nations. in the evening. Upon arriving in that port the steamer went on the dry dock and underwent repairs.

The damages to the gunboat had not been precisely ascertained, when the America Maru sailed from Yokohama. It is believed that they were very light. It is stated that sometime after the accident occurred the Amagi entered Kushimoto harbor and immediately office. Kobe, inquiring the other ves- ing. sel's name and her damages. At the same time the Kobe agent of the Paci-fic Mail Steamship Company, also call-died at the office so that the names of the Scandia. Eighteenth Anniversary is Observed in this City.

At Central Union Church-Papers Are Read-Origin and Mission. Work Done.

During the meeting of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor in Central Union last evening, several short papers were read commemorating the eighteenth anniversary of the founding of the society at Portland Me., in 1881, by Rev. Francis Clark.

The first paper, read by Prof. French, told of the founding of the first society, and the second, read by Miss Kate Kelley, told of its purpose.

Dr. Clark finding that many of his young converts were in need of help that could not well be given by the older members of his church, planned the organization of a society whereby each might help the other. "To help one another and to help others, to save young people, and to train them to work for Christ," has ever been the uppermost thought of this grand organization. That it has, and is doing this, is demonstrated by the millions of its adherents and supporters.

These papers were followed by others, telling of "The Conventions," "The Forming of the First Society on the Hawaiian Islands," and "The Growth of the Organization in the Different Countries.' In the first convention, held in 1882 but six societies were represented while the last one, held at Nashville Tenn., in 1898, represented 54,191 societies, with a total membership of over three millions. The next conventhe one in 1990 in London, which, no doubt, will eclipse all former ones.

The first society outside the United States was organized in Honolulu in 1884, by Rev. J. A. Cruzan. A few charter members are still in existence There are now seventeen societies on the Islands.

The growth in other countries has been very rapid, even "Darkest Africa" numbers her societies by the hundreds Thus, it is seen that the whole earth has been girdled by this band of workers and no society ever organized can number as it does, millions of the best and brightest young people of all

Down Again Drink PURE

If the advice given in those three words is heeded, good health will follow. City water is not good for many reasons, principally, because it is contaminated with vegetable and putrid matter of all descriptions. A simple analysis shows this to be a fact.

EXCERCISE

Our doctors are busy treating patients who are suffering from complaints, more especially malarial disorders, which will be materially benefitted if they drink a water that is pure and possesses curative features, as does Bartlett Spring Water.

Ask your family physician about the water, and if he is honest he will endorse its use.

All who have drank the water speak in the highest of terms for it.

This climate demands the use of such a water and you cannot afford to be without it.

VIGILANCE.

We will serve free of charge a glass of this wonderful natural Spring water at our Soda Counter to all who care to come and test its virtues. We deliver the water to your home in case lots at $6.50 for 50 pints, $9.50 for 50

Two savage growling lions are pinned up in the old fire station buildin on Union lane. They were brought to the city on the Moana and belong to Mr. and Mrs. A. James, who are on a tour of the country with them.

There is no likelihood of the animals escaping, for Mr. James prizes his pets too highly to take chances. At present they are confined in a small but stout cage, but today will be turned into a larger cage running along the entire length of the building. Here they will be exhibited to the public

The lions are certainly the best specimens ever brought to Honolulu. They were captured by Mr. James in what is known as Portuguese Africa, located on the Western Coast, when they were seven or eight weeks old. They now answer to the names of Lobengula, who was an African king and Lioness Suazi, the name of an African tribe "A friend and myself, accompanied by a dozen kaffirs were out hunting on the plains," said Mr. James yesterday. "We encountered two honesses with five cubs. We killed the old ones and the kaffirs captured the young ones and carried them back to the city. I selected the finest pair in the lot and sold the remaining ones in Africa for one hundred and twenty-five pounds.

"They are good specimens of the famous African black mane blood and are now eight months old. They will continue to grow until they attain the large size. It will be five years before they have attained their full growth."

Mr. James has spent several years in Africa and has many interesting stories to tell of that country. He says that lions are quite numerous and are very bold. In the town of Beira, where he lived, are they particularly dangerous. A butcher secured a bullock from Madagascar and hung it up over night. It was carried away by some my stomach and back. I was unable ed, returned one week later, and failing to find a bullock, carried away a kaffir whom they caught on the outskirts of the city. Mr. James says that the prey consists mostly of antelope. It is the older lion who seeks his own boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for food and he is desperate. The manures manufactured by the California Fretilizer Works are made entirely from clean bone treated with acid, Dry Blood and Flesh, Potash and Magnesia Salts.

No adulteration of any kind is used, and every ton is sold under a guaranteed analysis. One ton or one thousand tons are almost exactly alike, and for excellent mechanical condition and high analysis have no superior in the market.

The superiority of Pure Bone over any other Phosphatic Material for Fertilizer use is so well known that it needs no explanation.

The large and constantly increasing demand for the Fertilizers manufactured by the California Fertilizer Works is the best possible proof of their superior quality.

May Flint Reinsurance. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25 .- Insurance men are gambling on the voyage of the American four-masted ship May Flint. Some anxiety is felt for the vessel, though it cannot be said it is overdue. The ship sailed from Hlogo, Japan, for New York 150 days ago and since she left port she has not been spoken. An average voyage between the two ports is about 130 days, but as the May Flint is considered a smart ship it is thought she should

The May Flint is one of the bestknown vessels in the American merchant marine. She was transformed into a sailing ship from the British steamer Persian Monarch, and as a resuit she presents a peculiar appearance as a sailing vessel. Twenty per cent, reinsurance is now being quoted on the ship.
